Profile

As a board-certified dermatologist, P. Kim Phillips, MD, focuses on procedural dermatology and is skilled in dermatologic surgery, including minor excisional surgery, Mohs micrographic surgery, reconstruction after skin cancer surgery and excision of melanoma. Dr. Phillips also is skilled in cosmetic dermatology, including care of sun-damaged skin and wrinkles, chemical peels, filler and Botox injections, dermabrasion and scar revision, as well as laser surgery, including treatment for vascular lesions, brown spots, rhinophyma, facial rejuvenation and hair removal.

Dr. Phillips directs the Melanoma and Pigmented Lesion Clinic and the Transplant Dermatology Clinic at Aurora St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee. These patients require expert skin exams to identify and treat skin cancers at the earliest stages.

In addition to her practice, Dr. Phillips serves as a clinical assistant professor of medicine at the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health, and is Aurora Medical Group's director of procedural dermatology services. She has authored more than 20 papers and four book chapters. She has lectured on skin cancer, laser surgery and skin cancer in solid-organ transplant recipients at both national and international conferences.

Dr. Phillips is a fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology and the American College of Mohs Surgery. She is a member of the American Society for Dermatologic Surgery and the International Transplant Skin Cancer Collaborative. She has been selected by her peers as one of the "Best Doctors in America," a list of the nation's most respected doctors recognized as the best in their fields. (05/12)
