CREDIT CARD APPLICATION

Check below to indicate the type of credit for which you are applying. Married Applicants may apply for a separate account.

- INDIVIDUAL CREDIT: You must complete the Applicant section about yourself and the Other section about your spouse if: (1) you live in or the property pledged as collateral is located in a community property state (AK, AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, TX, WA, WI); (2) your spouse will use the account; or (3) you are relying on your spouse's income as a basis for repayment. If you are relying on income from alimony, child support, or separate maintenance, complete the Other section to the extent possible about the person on whose payments you are relying.
- JOINT CREDIT: Each applicant must individually complete the appropriate section below. If Co-Borrower is spouse of the applicant, mark the Co-Applicant box.
- GUARANTOR: Complete the Other section if you are a guarantor on an account/loan.

State Law Notices OHIO RESIDENTS ONLY: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

WISCONSIN RESIDENTS ONLY: (1) No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement under Section 766.59, or court decree under Section 766.70 will adversely affect the rights of the Credit Union unless the Credit Union is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree, or has actual knowledge of its terms, before the credit is granted or the account is opened. (2) Please sign if you are not applying for this account or loan with your spouse. The credit being applied for, if granted, will be incurred in the interest of the marriage or family of the undersigned.

You promise that everything you have stated in this application is correct to the best of your knowledge. If there are any important changes you will notify us in writing immediately. You authorize the Credit Union to obtain credit reports in connection with this application for credit and for any update, increase, renewal, extension, or collection of the credit received. You understand that the Credit Union will rely on the information in this application and your credit report to make its decision. If you request, the Credit Union will tell you the name and address of any credit bureau from which it received a credit report on you. It is a federal crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information on loan applications made to federal credit unions or state chartered credit unions insured by		NCUA. You understand that the use of your card will constitute acknowledgment of receipt and agreement to the terms of the credit card agreement. A condition of your account is your granting us a security interest in your share accounts. By signing below you grant us a security interest in all individual and joint share and/or deposit accounts you have with us now and in the future to secure your credit card account. Shares and deposits in an Individual Retirement Account and any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security are not subject to this security interest. When you are in default we may apply the balance in these accounts to any amounts due under the credit card agreement.

CREDIT CARD AGREEMENT FOR WISCONSIN

In this agreement the words “you” and “your” mean each and all of those who agree to be bound by this agreement; “card” means the credit card and any duplicates, renewals, or substitutions the credit union issues to you; “account” means your credit card line of credit account with the credit union, and “credit union” means the credit union whose name appears on this agreement or anyone to whom the credit union transfers this agreement.

1. USING YOUR ACCOUNT — If you are approved for an account, the credit union will establish a line of credit for you and notify you of your credit limit. You agree that your credit limit is the maximum amount (purchases, cash advances, finance charges, plus “other charges”) which you will have outstanding on your account at any time. If you are over your credit limit, you must pay the amount you are over before payments will begin to restore your credit limit. You may request an increase in your credit limit only by a method acceptable to the credit union. The credit union has the right to reduce your credit limit, refuse to make an advance and/or terminate your account at any time for any reason not prohibited by law.

2. USING YOUR CARD — You understand that the use of your credit card will constitute acknowledgement of receipt and agreement to the terms of the credit card agreement. You may use your card to make purchases from merchants and others who accept Visa. However, you may not use your card to initiate any type of electronic gambling transaction through the Internet. If you wish to pay for goods or services over the Internet, you may be required to provide card number security information before you will be permitted to complete the transaction. In addition, you may obtain cash advances from the credit union and from other financial institutions that accept Visa, and from some automated teller machines (ATMs). (Not all ATMs accept Visa.) To obtain cash advances from an ATM, you must use the personal identification number (PIN) issued to you for use with your card. You agree that you will not use your card for any transaction that is illegal under applicable federal, state or local law.

3. RESPONSIBILITY — You agree to pay all charges (purchases and cash advances) made to your account by you or anyone you authorize to use your account. You also agree to pay all finance charges and other charges added to your account under the terms of this agreement or another agreement you made with the credit union. If this is a joint account, Section 17 also applies to your account.

4. FINANCE CHARGES — New purchases posted to your account during a billing cycle will not incur a finance charge for that billing cycle if you had a zero or credit balance at the beginning of that billing cycle, or you paid the entire new balance on the previous cycle's billing statement by the payment due date of that statement; otherwise a finance charge will accrue from the date a purchase is posted to your account. To avoid an additional finance charge on the balance of purchases, you must pay the entire new balance on the billing statement by the payment due date of that statement. A finance charge begins to accrue on cash advances from the date you get the cash advance or from the first day of the billing cycle in which the cash advance is posted to your account, whichever is later.

The finance charge is calculated separately for purchases and cash advances. For purchases, the finance charge is computed by applying the monthly periodic rate to the average daily balance of purchases. To get the average daily balance of purchases, we take the beginning outstanding balance of purchases each day, add any new purchases, and subtract any payments and/or credits. This gives us the daily balance of purchases. Then, we add all the daily balances of purchases for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of purchases.

For cash advances, the finance charge is computed by applying the monthly periodic rate to the average daily balance of cash advances. To get the average daily balance of cash advances, we take the beginning outstanding balance of cash advances each day, add in any new cash advances, and subtract any payments and/or credits that we apply to the cash advance balance. This gives us the daily balance of cash advances. Then, we add all the daily balances of cash advances for the billing cycle together and divide the total by the number of days in the billing cycle. This gives us the average daily balance of cash advances. Balance transfers are calculated in the same manner as cash advances.

For our Visa Classic Share Secured card, the monthly periodic rate for purchases, cash advances and balance transfers is 0.6458% which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 7.75%.

Balance transfer ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will continue until the balance is paid off.

For our Visa Classic Unsecured card, the monthly periodic rate for purchases, cash advances and balance transfers is 0.8250% which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 9.90%.

Balance transfer ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will continue until the balance is paid off.

An introductory offer is available for our Visa Classic Platinum Preferred card on purchases to new cardholders for a period of six (6) months from the issuance date. The monthly periodic rate for this offer is 0.0000% which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 0.00%. Thereafter, the monthly periodic rate will change to 0.6583% which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 7.90%. This offer may be withdrawn at the credit union's discretion at any time. For our Visa Classic Platinum Preferred card, the monthly periodic rate for purchases, cash advances and balance transfers is 0.65830% which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 7.90%.

Balance transfer ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will continue until the balance is paid off.

When a) the payment of your Minimum Monthly Payment is not credited to your account within 30 days of the Payment Due Date in any three (3) billing periods; b) a payment on your account is not honored by your financial institution; c) your account is otherwise in default under your Cardholder Agreement, the monthly periodic rate on your account will change to 1.5000% per month which is an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 18.0%. When your account is current, contact the credit union to apply for a rate reduction.

5. OTHER CHARGES — The following other charges (fees) will be added to your account, as applicable:

a. Over-the-Credit-Limit Fee. You may be charged a fee of $15.00 on a statement date if your new balance on that date, less any fees imposed during the cycle, is over your credit limit. You will be charged the fee each subsequent month until your new balance on the statement date, less any fees imposed during the cycle, is BELOW your credit limit.

b. Late Payment Fee. A late fee of $15.00 will be added to your account if you make your payment later than the fifth (5th) day after the payment's due date.

c. Return Check Fee. If a check or share draft used to make a payment on your account is returned unpaid, you will be charged a fee of $25.00 for each item returned.

d. Card Replacement Fee. You will be charged $5.00 for each replacement card, after the first (1st) replacement request, that is issued to you for any reason.

e. Document Copy Fee. You will be charged $4.00 for each copy of a sales draft or statement that you request (except when the request is made in connection with a billing error made by the credit union).

f. Inactivity Fee. You will be charged $5.00 annually, if you do not use your card 12 or more times in a 12 month period or carry an average daily balance of $2,500.00.

g. Collection Costs. To the extent permitted by Wis. Stat. Sec. 422.413, you will be required to pay the credit union's collection expenses, including statutorily permitted court costs and attorney's fees.

6. PAYMENTS — Each month you must pay at least the minimum payment shown on your statement by the date specified on the statement or no later than twenty-five (25) days from the statement closing date whichever is later. If your statement says the payment is “Now Due,” your payment is due no later than twenty-five (25) days from the statement closing date. You may pay more frequently, pay more than the minimum payment or pay the total new balance in full. If you make extra or larger payments, you are still required to make at least the minimum payment each month your account has a balance (other than a credit balance). The minimum payment is 2.0% of your total new balance, or $20.00, whichever is greater, plus the amount of any prior minimum payments that you have not made, and any amount you are over your credit limit. The credit union also has the right to demand immediate payment of any amount by which you are over your credit limit.

7. PAYMENT ALLOCATION — Subject to applicable law, your payments may be applied to what you owe the credit union in any manner the credit union chooses.

8. SECURITY INTEREST — If you give the credit union a specific pledge of shares by signing a separate pledge of shares, your pledged shares will secure your account. You may not withdraw amounts that have been specifically pledged to secure your account until the credit union agrees to release all or part of the pledged amount. In addition, your account is secured by all other shares you have in any individual or joint account with the credit union, except for shares in an Individual Retirement Account or in any other account that would lose special tax treatment under state or federal law if given as security. You authorize the credit union to apply the balance in your individual or joint share accounts to pay any amounts due on your account if you should default. Collateral securing other loans you have with the credit union may also secure this loan, except that a dwelling will never be considered as security for this account, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other agreement.

9. DEFAULT — Upon default, the entire outstanding balance due under this agreement shall, unless excused by our Board of Directors, become immediately due and payable, subject only to any right to cure default which you may have under Section 425.105 of the Wisconsin Statutes. A default shall be deemed to have occurred if (a) you fail to make payments when due on two occasions within any 12-month period, or (b) you fail to observe any other covenant of this agreement, you or your spouse die, change marital status, change marital domicile or become insolvent or subject of a bankruptcy or other insolvency proceeding, if such failure, act or occurrence materially impairs your ability to pay the amount due under this agreement or breach of which materially impairs the condition, value or protection of the merchant's rights in any collateral securing the transaction. In addition, notwithstanding Sections 425.103 and 425.105 of the Wisconsin Statutes, in the event we receive a notice of termination of this agreement from the spouse of a borrower pursuant to Section 766.565(5), Wisconsin Statutes, we may declare the entire outstanding balance of the agreement immediately due and payable. If immediate payment is demanded, you agree to continue paying finance charges at the periodic rate charged before the default, until what you owe has been paid, and any shares that were given as security for your account may be applied towards what you owe.

10. LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED USE — You agree to notify us immediately, orally or in writing at 3355 W. Forest Home Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53215 or telephone (414) 649-7949 Monday through Thursday 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., Friday 7:00 A.M. to 6:30 P.M., or (800) 808-7230 after hours and weekends, or (800) 991-4964 seven (7) days a week, 24 hours a day, of the loss, theft, or unauthorized use of your credit card. You may be liable for the unauthorized use of your credit card. You will not be liable for unauthorized use that occurs after you notify us of the loss, theft, or possible unauthorized use. You will have no liability for unauthorized purchases made with your credit card, unless you are grossly negligent in the handling of your card. In any case, your liability will not exceed $50.

11. CHANGING OR TERMINATING YOUR ACCOUNT — The credit union may change the terms of this agreement from time to time. Notice of any change will be given in accordance with applicable law. To the extent permitted by law, changes to the agreement may apply to your existing account balance as well as to future transactions.

Either you, your spouse or the credit union may terminate this agreement at any time, but termination by you, your spouse or the credit union will not affect your obligation to pay the account balance plus any finance and other charges you or your spouse owe under this agreement.

The card or cards you receive remain the property of the credit union and you must recover and surrender to the credit union all cards upon request or upon termination of this agreement whether by you or the credit union.

12. CREDIT REVIEW AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION — You authorize the credit union to investigate your credit standing when opening or reviewing your account. You authorize the credit union to disclose information regarding your account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing. If your account is eligible for emergency cash and/or emergency card replacement services, and you request such services, you agree that we may provide personal information about you and your account that is necessary to provide you with the requested service(s).

13. RETURNS AND ADJUSTMENTS — Merchants and others who honor your card may give credit for returns or adjustments, and they will do so by sending the credit union a credit slip which will be posted to your account. If your credits and payments exceed what you owe the credit union, the amount will be applied against future purchases and cash advances. If the credit balance amount is $1 or more, it will be refunded upon your written request or automatically after six (6) months.

14. ADDITIONAL BENEFITS/CARD ENHANCEMENTS — The credit union may from time to time offer additional services to your account, such as travel accident insurance, at no additional cost to you. You understand that the credit union is not obligated to offer such services and may withdraw or change them at any time.

15. FOREIGN TRANSACTIONS — Purchases and cash advances made in foreign currencies will be debited from your account in U.S. dollars. The exchange rate between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing international transactions is a rate selected by Visa from a range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate Visa itself receives, or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date, in each instance plus an additional 1%. The exchange rate used on the processing date may differ from the rate that would have been used on the purchase date or cardholder statement posting date.

16. MERCHANT DISPUTES — The credit union is not responsible for the refusal of any merchant or financial institution to honor your card. The credit union is subject to claims and defenses (other than tort claims) arising out of goods or services you purchase with the card if you have made a good faith attempt but have been unable to obtain satisfaction from the merchant or service provider, and (a) your purchase was made in response to an advertisement the credit union sent or participated in sending to you; or (b) your purchase cost more than $50 and was made in your state or within one hundred (100) miles of your home.

17. JOINT ACCOUNTS — If this is a joint account, each person on the account must sign the agreement (by signing on the application). Each of you will be individually and jointly responsible for paying all amounts owed under this agreement. This means that the credit union can require any one of you individually to repay the entire amount owed under this agreement. Each of you authorizes the other(s) to make purchases or cash advances individually. Any one of you may terminate the account and the termination will be effective as to all of you.

18. EFFECT OF AGREEMENT — This agreement is the contract which applies to all transactions on your account even though the sales, cash advances, credit or other slips you sign or receive may contain different terms.

19. NO WAIVER — The credit union can delay enforcing any of its rights any number of times without losing them.

20. STATEMENTS AND NOTICES — Statements and notices will be mailed to you at the most recent address you have given the credit union. Notice sent to any one of you will be considered notice to all.

21. FINAL EXPRESSION — This agreement is the final expression of the terms and conditions of this line of credit between you and the credit union. This written agreement may not be contradicted by evidence of any alleged oral agreement.

22. COPY RECEIVED — You acknowledge that you have received a copy of this agreement.

23. SIGNATURES — By signing in the Signature area of the application form that was attached to this agreement when you received it, you agree to the terms of this agreement. You should detach this agreement from the application and retain it for your records.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

NOTIFY US IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR BILL —

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet at the address listed on your bill. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

If you have authorized us to pay your credit card bill automatically from your savings or share draft account, you can stop the payment on any amount you think is wrong. To stop the payment, your letter must reach us three (3) business days before the automatic payment is scheduled to occur.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR WRITTEN NOTICE —

We must acknowledge your letter within thirty (30) days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within ninety (90) days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct.

After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten (10) days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill. And, we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

SPECIAL RULE FOR CREDIT CARD PURCHASES —

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two (2) limitations on this right:

- You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within one hundred (100) miles of your current mailing address; and
- The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
