FTTI welcomes new faculty, Nancy Reed, LMFT

Nancy is a licensed Marriage & Family Therapist who provides mental health counseling services to children and adolescents. Her areas of specialty include spirituality, ADHD, behavior management, adjustment disorders, family-related issues, anxiety and depression. She has facilitated groups to help children and teens with anger management, depression, anxiety, and changing families. Nancy also has experience working with children with a trauma background experiencing PTSD. She will teach the program’s course on integrating youth into family therapy in Fall of 2022.

988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline is Live!

Visit this website for information on how to access 988 in Wisconsin.

2022 Final Fall application deadline August 5th

- Find more details and the application on our website, www.aurora.org/ftti.
- Share a copy of our current flyer interested parties; download it here. Scholarships available! Find out more here.

Practice Topic: Special issue on the efficacy and effectiveness of couple and family interventions: Evidence base update 2010-2019

Access the Journal of Marital and Family Therapy review here.

Additional Resource: Center for Financial Wellness

As we know, financial stress can have significant impact on mental well being. For 50 years, Advocate Aurora Health’s Center for Financial Wellness (CFW) program has provided an array of financial learning services that include creating spending plans, credit reviews, debt repayment, and mortgage and student loan counseling. CFW has guided consumers in paying over 25 million dollars of debt over the last 15 years. Connect with the confidential expertise of the CFW team here. If you are an AAH team member, visit the SharePoint site here.